

Knox County Commission

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release: July 8, 2014

Commissioner Jeff Ownby suffered a pancreatic attack last Wednesday, July 2, 2014. He is being released from the UT Medical Center and credits the skill, hard work and wonderful care of the doctors and nursing staff at UT with his rapid recovery.

Commissioner Ownby looks forward to resuming his duties after a brief respite, but remains available to his constituents by phone at 441-6162.

"I want to thank everyone for all the well-wishes and prayers, and hope to be back in the saddle in a few days."
