

Knoxville-Knox County safety center task force to meet

Who: Jimmy “J.J.” Jones, Knox County Sheriff
Randy Nichols, Knox County District Attorney General
Hon. Patricia Hall Long, General Sessions Criminal Judge
Dean Rice, Chief of Staff, Knox County (co-chair)
Bill Lyons, Chief Policy Officer, City of Knoxville (co-chair)
Charles Burks, Attorney, Justice, Noel & Burks
David Rausch, Knoxville Police Chief
Mark Brown, General Sessions Judicial Magistrate
Mark Stephens, Knox County Public Defender

What: Safety Center task force meeting

When: Tuesday, July 23
3 p.m.

Where: Commission Conference Room
6th Floor, City County Building
400 Main Street, Knoxville

Background:

KNOXVILLE (July 8, 2013) – The Knoxville-Knox County safety center task force will meet at 3 p.m., Tuesday, July 23 in the Commission Conference Room on the sixth floor of the City County Building. The task force was organized to investigate the potential impact that the proposed safety center would have on the overcrowding at the Knox County Sheriff’s Detention Facility.

For more information contact:

Michael Grider, Knox County
Communications Manager
Office – (865) 215-4750
Mobile – (865) 591-0655

Angela Starke, City of Knoxville
Senior Director of Communications
Office – (865) 215-2267
Cell – (865) 226-9055

###