Background:

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (May 30, 2014) – Knox County Mayor Tim Burchett will host a special Food Truck Friday event on Friday, June 6 from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The event will take place downtown in Food Truck Zone 1 at 550 W Main Street, near the Bank of America Building.

All three registered vendors in the City of Knoxville’s Mobile Food Vendor Pilot Program will be participating in Food Truck Friday. Participants include Forks on the Road, Savory & Sweet and Tootsie Truck.

Like other Lunch with the Mayor events, the public is invited and elected officials may be in attendance. As always, attendees will be responsible for purchasing their own meals.

The Mobile Food Vendor Pilot Program was established by the City of Knoxville in April 2014 to allow mobile food vendors to operate in public rights-of-way and on private property under certain guidelines. For more information on the program visit <http://www.cityofknoxville.org/mobilefood/>
