Mayor Burchett hosts chili dog lunch for law enforcement

When: Friday, December 11
11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: Vol Market #3
3400 Western Ave., Knoxville

Background:

KNOXVILLE (Dec. 8, 2015) – Knox County Mayor Tim Burchett wants to buy a chili dog and Stormin’ Normin’ sweet tea for law enforcement officers in appreciation for their service to our community. Mayor Burchett is inviting all law enforcement officers—including KPD, KCSO, TBI, FBI, UTPD and THP—to Vol Market #3 for lunch, provided by the mayor.

“Our law enforcement officers work hard every day to keep us safe, and they deserve our thanks,” said Mayor Burchett. “This is a very simple way to let them know that we appreciate what they do. Besides, who doesn’t like a Vol Market chili dog?”

Mayor Burchett will be at Vol Market from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. Friday to greet members of law enforcement who come in for lunch.
