

MEDIA ADVISORY

OFFICE OF COUNTY MAYOR TIM BURCHETT

400 Main Street, Suite 615, Knoxville, TN 37902

Groundbreaking planned for new Carter Elementary School

Who: Knox Co. Mayor Tim Burchett, Knox County Schools Superintendent Dr. Jim McIntyre, Board of Education, Commission, IDB, Partners Development, students, parents, community members

What: Groundbreaking for the new Carter Elementary School

When: Wednesday, Nov. 9 at 3:15 p.m.

Where: 8455 Strawberry Plains Pike, between McCubbins Rd. and S. Molly Bright Rd.

Background:

Knox County Mayor Tim Burchett, along with Knox County Schools Superintendent Dr. Jim McIntyre, Knox County School Board members, Knox County Commissioners and other officials will formally break ground at the site of the new Carter Elementary School.

Parking is available adjacent to the groundbreaking site at Volunteer Steel. Overflow parking and a shuttle to the groundbreaking will be available at the Carter Library/Senior Center and sports park, which are located at 9040 Asheville Highway, between Strawberry Plains Pike and Carter School Road. Carpooling is encouraged.

For a Google Map to the groundbreaking site, visit <http://g.co/maps/m93p8>.

For more information contact Michael Grider at 865-215-4750 (office)/ 865-363-8681 (cell).

###