Background:

KNOXVILLE (Aug. 3, 2012) – On Monday, Aug. 3, Knox County Mayor Tim Burchett will tour the site of an important road construction project in the Halls community. The tour will take place at 10:30 a.m. at the intersection of Emory Rd. and Andersonville Pike.

“This road project will greatly improve traffic flow at this major intersection, which will increase public safety and help encourage economic development,” Knox County Mayor Tim Burchett said. “I am very proud of the Knox County Engineering and Public Works Department for their work on this project. I also want to thank the Knox County Commission for their work and support, which helped get us to this point.”

The public, members of the media and other elected officials are welcomed to attend.
