Mayor Burchett releases statement on Sen. Woodson's SCORE appointment

Knoxville, Tenn. — Knox County Mayor Tim Burchett released the followings statement Thursday concerning the appointment of State Senator Jamie Woodson to President/CEO of SCORE and the announcement that she will step down from her seat in the State Senate:

“I would like to congratulate Sen. Jamie Woodson on this exciting new opportunity with SCORE. When she steps down at the end of this legislative session, her absence will create a huge void in the General Assembly. In the 12 years that I spent serving with her in the state legislature, we became better friends, and I quickly came to respect her as an outstanding representative of the great people of Knox County.

“Her leadership will be missed in the Senate, but I am confident that she will excel in her new role with SCORE, just as she has excelled in all of her past endeavors.”
