

Knox County Community Development Citizens Review Panel Application

Knox County Community Development is responsible for management of the resources available to Knox County and its citizens that provide new housing opportunities, promote tourism and the arts, correct or mitigate problems with existing living conditions and enhance social services. The Knox County Community Development Department seeks County residents, age 18 or older, to serve on a Citizens Review Panel. This Panel will review grant proposals and make recommendations that will affect a variety of services in our community. Individuals will be selected based on their knowledge and experience in the appropriate areas, as well as their willingness to commit time and energy to the process. Further, Knox County will consider age, gender, geographic representation, and cultural background among other factors to create diverse, effective panels. Please use this form to nominate yourself or another person.
