

RULE 29
POST-DIVORCE FILINGS WITH CHILDREN

All petitions to modify previous custody orders (or previous parenting plans) shall follow the procedure set forth in Rule 28A. In contested cases, the previous custody order or previous parenting plan will continue in effect until completion of new Parent Education Seminars; the completion of the alternative dispute resolution process; and the entry of a new order by the court (either by agreement of the parties, or after hearing), unless for good cause shown the court orders otherwise under the provisions of Local Rule 28B.

Local Rule 28B may be used by counsel in post-divorce co-parenting proceedings, as well as in the original divorce proceedings.
