

News & Events

Metropolitan Planning Commission

Decisions regarding land use and density are made by the Metropolitan Planning Commission (MPC), during the rezoning process. During the Concept Plan and Use on Review process, other design requirements for site development may be stipulated by MPC to meet concerns for public safety concerns, address community issues, or as compliance with long range planning. Proposed designs are referred to Knox County Engineering for detailed engineering design approval after MPC requirements are established.

More information:

Please see

MPC Home:

<http://www.knoxmpc.org/>

Meeting Schedule:

<http://www.knoxmpc.org/aboutmpc/meetings.htm>