Mayor Jacobs to Speak About COVID-19 and Other Public Health Concerns

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will post about 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about the COVID-19 pandemic and suggests ways to have a safe and healthy Thanksgiving. The Mayor also touches on a series of other public health concerns, including child abuse and an alarming increase in drug-related deaths.

In addition, Mayor Jacobs recognizes some local achievements that took place this week, touching on Random Acts of Flowers 500,000th delivery and Knoxville resident Elizabeth Schneider winning the "Best Adoptive Parent" award.
