Mayor Jacobs Talks Military, Love Kitchen, Presidents' Day, and More

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will post about 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about the Love Kitchen, the sad loss of two National Guardsmen who were killed when their Blackhawk helicopter crashed in Alabama, and the Halls High School wrestling team, which recently won their first ever TSSAA state wrestling championship.

In addition, Mayor Jacobs also congratulates the 134th Air Refueling Wing, based here at the McGhee Tyson Airport, and recently recognized with three national-level unit awards.

He also talks notes that he will share a short message on Presidents' Day, which will be posted on the county and the mayor's social media platforms on Monday.

Please note: Knox County government offices—including convenience centers, libraries, senior centers, and the health department—will be closed on Monday, February 20, 2023, in observance of Presidents' Day. All offices will resume normal operating hours on Tuesday, February 21, 2023.
