Mayor Jacobs Talks About Men of Valor, One Book Read City, and A.I.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—During his Weekly Update, which will be posted around 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about time spent at a breakfast with Men of Valor—a group that helps men make the transition from prison back to the community—and shares some staggering incarceration statistics.

Mayor Jacobs also teases Monday's reveal of the book for this year's One Book Read City program and highlights a new series on artificial intelligence that will be hosted by Knox County Public Libraries in May.
