Mayor Jacobs Talks About Dental Program, Park and Play, and More

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will post around 2 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about a School-Based Dental Program, Knox County's Park and Play Program, and the Second Saturday Concert Series, which kicked off last weekend at the Cove at Concord Park.

Mayor Jacobs also touches on a number of events he attended and noted that "even though summer is upon us, Read City USA is still going strong."

He adds: "And don't forget, the Friends of the Library is hosting a used book sale at the Cedar Bluff Library on June 28 and 29. Proceeds from the sale benefit the library system and there are a lot of bargains with most items costing $2 or less."

He wishes good luck to the top-ranked University of Tennessee baseball team as they take on Florida State tonight at the College World Series in Omaha, and tells a funny story about Father's Day, which is Sunday.
