November 5, 2024 Election: Absentee Ballot Information and Important Reminders Before Voters Head to the Polls

Knoxville – As Knox Countians head to the polls on Tuesday, the Election Commission wants to issue a few reminders.

ABSENTEE BY MAIL BALLOTS

For voters that have requested but have not received their absentee ballot by Election Day, they can go vote at their Election Day precinct and request a provisional ballot to cast. Polls are open from 8 am to 8 pm.

To determine a voter's Election Day polling place, please visit:
<https://www.kgis.org/portal/onlinetools/votinglocationsearch.aspx>

For voters that have received their ballot, but fear that they won't be able to mail the ballot in before the close of polls on Tuesday, the voter can take their ballot to either:

Downtown Post Office's front counter
501 West Main Street
Knoxville, 37902

or

Weisgarber Road Post Office's front counter
1237 Weisgarber Road
Knoxville, 37950

By 4:00 P.M. on Tuesday, November 5, 2024 and have the ballot hand-stamped with postage at the front counter.

The Election Commission will proceed to pick up any ballots that are received by the USPS at both of these locations in the late afternoon.

TIMES FOR VOTING

POLLS ARE OPEN ON TUESDAY FROM 8 AM TO 8 PM. Any voter in line by 8:00 pm will be allowed to vote.

PHOTO IDENTIFICATION

A photo ID issued by the State of Tennessee (such as a driver's license) or the Federal Government (such as a passport) is required to vote, unless an exemption applies. Election workers are trained to ask for your photo identification prior to issuing a ballot. Driver licenses from other states are not acceptable forms of ID for voting in the state of Tennessee.

WHERE DO I VOTE?

On Election Day, voters must vote at their assigned precinct. For voters that are unsure where they vote, they can visit www.knoxvotes.org and click on the "Where Do I Vote?" box on the front page and enter their residential address. The website will match the voter's address with the correct polling place.
