

Narrative

On April 1, 2020, at or about 1354 hrs myself and Det Hummel responded to 8011 Branson Rd on domestic assault call. There we met with Kelli Spears. She told us that on the morning of Friday March 27, 2020 she was asleep in bed at her boyfriend's, Westley Keck, house at 930 Chip Cove LN Knoxville Tn 37938 when her boyfriend Westley Keck came home from working night shift. She said he woke her up by hitting her in the small of the back. She had a bruise area in the small of her back. She said he told her that they were breaking up. She said he grabbed her by the right arm and pulled her out of the bed. She said when he pulled her; her feet were caught in a blanket, causing her to fall from the bed to the floor hitting her knees. Kelli Spears had a bruise on her right fore arm and bruises on both of her legs. She said he was yelling at her to get her things and get out. She said she gathered her things and left. This is an ongoing investigation.
